

VACANCY ADVERTISEMENT

Executive – Gas Tariff Development (Putrajaya)

Responsibilities:

This position is responsible to support the Gas Tariff Development Unit's function in reviewing tariff and charges for utilization of gas facility and relevant issues, by executing the following activities:

- Assist to develop and review relevant guidelines on tariff and charges for utilization of gas facility;
- Assist to review and analyse proposal on tariff and charges for utilization of gas facility and retail activity;
- Assist to recommend tariff and charges for utilization of gas facility, and submit to Minister for approval;
- Monitor the performance of gas facility licensees during the implementation of approved tariff and charges;
- Analyse and prepare gas facility licensees' annual financial performance report;
- Prepare relevant information to update stakeholders on development of tariff and charges for utilization of gas facility;
- Assist to review and recommend regulatory policy on gas pricing, gas facility tariff and charges;

- Monitor gas and alternative fuel prices trend and its implications on electricity and piped gas supply industry; and
- Undertake all other related works in economic regulation including ad hoc data analysis and reporting or special projects as needed.

Requirements:

- Degree in Finance, Accounting, Engineering or other related fields of study from university accredited by the Government;
- Minimum four (4) years' working experience in related field;
- The following additional knowledge / experience shall have an added advantage:
 - Knowledge in gas supply regulatory matters.
 - Knowledge in gas facility tariff and charges determination.
 - Knowledge in design and operation of regasification terminal, transmission, distribution and internal pipelines
- Proactive with strong networking and relationship building skills;
- Possess good interpersonal skills and strong analytical skills;
- Possess a positive outlook, disciplined and results-oriented; and
- Excellent command of both written and spoken Bahasa Malaysia and English.