*Notes:

- Registered Energy Managers (REM) may be exempted from submitting Continuous Development Programme (CDP) documentation for renewal of their practising certificate if they have completed the mandatory CDP syllabus as indicated above.
- If the training course provided by a Registered Training Institution (RTI) falls below the required minimum hours specified, it will automatically be classified as an optional CDP. While REMs can use this for practising certificate renewal, it will not count towards the completion of mandatory topics.
- The symbol ✓* denotes that the topic will be classified as optional CDP if the training duration is below the specified hours.
- The symbol ✓ indicates that one of the listed topics must be selected.
